

Fitting boundary nodes to a specified analytic function

The boundary of our 2D domain is a polygon whose edges are the edges of boundary elements.